

LUCIEN PISSARRO

20/02/1863 - 10/07/1944

Pissarro's is named after French Impressionist artist Lucien Pissarro, son of Camille Pissarro, another famed impressionist artist. As a child he grew up around many of his fathers artistic friends, including Claude Monet and Pierre Auguste Denoir, and was influenced in his work by Georges Seurat and Paul Signac.

In January of 1918 Lucien visited Hastings and stayed for around 6 months, living on the East Hill. During his stay he mostly kept to himself and tried to keep a low profile, painting Ecclesbourne, Clive Vale, the Old Town, and the East Hill. One of his most famous paintings was from his 6 months spent in Hastings called Sun, Mist and Smoke. Hastings and Rye would later become inspiration for his Daughter Orovida.

Pissarro's as it is today opened in 1994 and is a lively bar and restaurant in the centre of Hastings offering great food, local beers, friendly service and live music!
